We've been named an
HP Qualified Supplies
Partner— to your benefit

HP has recently made significant changes in how their products are sold into the channel. Their new qualification program has set high standards for those selling their products. We're excited to announce that we have been approved as an HP Qualified Supplies Partner!

A Premier Group of Resellers

HP has spent nearly a year evaluating resellers across the country, looking for a carefully selected group capable of meeting HP's new higher standards. As part of the qualification process, our company was required to demonstrate that we have the resources and commitment to HP both today and in the future. We were evaluated based on:

- + Our business plan and selling strategies
- + Our effectiveness in the marketplace today
- + Our online systems
- + Our promotional planning process

HP has made a strong commitment to this new program. As a result, they have reduced the number of resellers in the United States from over 20,000 down to just 4,000 HP Qualified Supplies Partners—including us. We are in this select group!

How This News Benefits You

- + When you purchase from an HP Qualified Supplies Partner, you can be sure you are purchasing genuine HP products that are fully supported by HP. Did you know that many products sold on online marketplaces by resellers not HP Qualified have been found to be counterfeit, clones or not genuine HP? Buying this product could subject you to litigation.

- + Promotions and Special Pricing – HP Approved Promotions are only available through authorized partners like us.
- + No Supply Interruptions – Now that we are fully qualified to sell the complete line of genuine HP Imaging products, you may continue to purchase all the HP products you rely on from us.
- + Improved Support & Programs – We will be working with HP even closer to receive a high level of support that includes valuable training, detailed product information, pricing perks, and the development of new programs and promotions.
- + Superior Service – HP training and support means that we can provide information on latest product innovations and business solutions, along with a superior purchasing and service experience.

Questions or Concerns?

We're excited to continue providing you the most affordable solutions and value for all your printing needs. Contact us with any questions you might have.

Benefits of Genuine HP Supplies

- + Affordability – Genuine HP Supplies can lower your cost of printing with High Cap & Multipacks savings, and by helping you avoid hidden costs such as reprinting and printer downtime.
- + Reliability – HP works the first time, every time.
- + Quality – Testing revealed pages that were acceptable for all uses more than 97% of the time.
- + Environmental Leadership – Reduce your environmental impact with free & convenient recycling: no HP cartridges go to a landfill.
